

You asked for it: Expanded Salad Bar Now Available at Café Court

Last year, Sodexo received several requests from students asking for more items on the salad bar. Chef Anthony Brown tried to fulfill students' wishes by rotating items daily to include more variety, and by adding a topping station to the end of the salad bar. However, due to space constraints, serving all of the options at once was not possible. Now, thanks to some reconfiguring and the addition of a new island, the salad bar has doubled in size.

This space addition happened in several steps. First, a cash register was moved to allow the dessert bar to relocate to the empty space next to Freshens. Then the soup wells were moved to the condiment station, and finally, a new salad bar island was put into place. (The condiments can now be found in the dining hall next to the silverware.)

All of this rearranging allowed Chef Brown to introduce several new items to the salad menu. The second bar will feature frequently requested items including cottage cheese, yogurt, fruit, and hummus. In addition, a specialty salad will also be offered each day, including Greek, Strawberry, Italian chopped, Asian, and Southwest.

The former soup bar in the center of the salad bars is now a dry topping station and will feature items such as sunflower seeds, raisins, croutons, and more. Bread and pita chips will also be served each day.

Cool & Hot New Items at Ace's

Two new exciting products are debuting this fall at Ace's Place; one is a refreshing new beverage and the other a taste of Chicago.

New to the lineup of beverages at Ace's Place is the frozen drink Polar Shock. Polar Shock is a non-caffeinated, frozen beverage available in two bold fruit flavors: BoneChiller Cherry and RazzBerry Blues.

Last year, the roller grill at Ace's Place broke and we temporarily discontinued serving hot dogs and sausage. This year, hot dogs are back in a new, premium offering from Red Hot Chicago, a premium-quality producer of pure, all beef, Chicago-style hot dogs. Their products are served in hot dog stands around Chicago and throughout the country.

2011-2012 Culinary Series to Highlight Mediterranean Cuisine

Each year, the Sodexo Student Board of Directors meets to determine the culinary theme that will be featured at Sodexo campus locations across the U.S. The Student Board of Directors, or SBOD, is made up of student representatives from around the country. Based on student opinions and current food trends, Mediterranean cuisine was selected for the 2011-2012 theme.

The Mediterranean cuisine is a broad category, and it has been broken down into four promotions based on geography. These areas are Spain (El Toro de la Noche), Italy (La Famiglia), Mediterranean Beaches (The Mediterranean Club) and Greece (Evexia). The first two areas will be featured during the fall semester and the latter during the spring.

Gluten Free Options Added at Ace's Place & Jazzman's

If you follow a gluten-free diet, you will no longer have to pass on tasty treats at Jazzman's and fresh, hot pizza at Ace's Place!

Jazzman's will now offer gluten-free cookies and cupcakes and Ace's Place will have GF brownies and pizzas available. The gluten free pizzas will be available as a meal swipe and will require 5-10 minutes to bake.

As a reminder, any student with special dietary needs is encouraged to contact Sodexo to discuss options available to them when dining on campus.
