My Kitchen-You're Cooking

Last year, we introduced the My Kitchen—You're Cooking series of culinary classes. Chef Anthony Brown led the classes, which covered a new topic each month. The classes have been on hiatus this year, but this month they're back!

On Tuesday, December 13, interested students will once again have the chance to learn a new skill in the kitchen. This month, Chef Brown will teach students how to bake a pie from scratch. (The date was chosen so that students can take their pies home for winter break.)

The class will meet at 7PM in the Café Court. The cost to participate is one meal swipe or $8 cash/credit/flex. Class size is limited to the first 8 students to register. A sign-up sheet will be available beginning Friday, December 9th at the Café Court dine-in register. Questions about the class can be directed to Lindsey Mitchell at lm150 or x2436.

It's Not Too Late to Add Flex!

Don't fight through finals without your daily Jazzman's fix because you used all of your Flex! Access the site below or snap the tag to add more at any time. (Remember— Flex dollars roll over from fall to spring semesters, so you won't lose anything you add now and don't use before break!)

This Month at

JAZZMAN'S CAFE & BAKERY

It's turning cold again, and Jazzman's has old favorites and new treats to keep you warm and happy all month long!

A yearly favorite, Home by the Fireside coffee is back once again. It is available brewed and whole bean to take home.

Also returning are the Cranberry & Candied Walnut Salad, Cranberry Pistachio Cookie, and Red Velvet Cupcakes. The Crème Brulee Latte is the featured beverage for this month. And of course, it wouldn't be December without Peppermint Mochas and Hot Chocolates!
